

Flavours

Rise & Shine

Imported from small coffee farms in Guatemala, where the bees are used to pollinate the coffee plants. This honey is sweet with a very pleasant caramel-fruit flavor.

With its bolder flavor, this honey also stands up well in baking. Use it to drizzle on baked apples beautiful wildflower honey is infused with cocoa and dark chocolate to make a thick, frosting-like treat that is good right off of the spoon.

most prefer it with teas, but I think this is best saved for toast, english muffins, scones or any breakfast time bread you would spread on.

La Vie En Rose

Roses are a relaxing nervine. They are mildly sedative and anti-inflammatory. Rose infused honey is a delightful way to enjoy the benefits of rose. Simple, yet luxurious, rose honey is a treat and makes a wonderful gift for those you love.

Sweet Dreams

Lavender & chamomile infused honey creates the perfect harmony to soothe your mind & body.

Pairs well with mild, salty cheeses like Feta and Ricotta Salata.

Land Of Milk

Collected from wild flowers and herbs around Jerusalem. Rich in taste & spreads magnificent scents.

This honey is used as a delicious healthy addition to upgrade pastries, ice creams, yogurts, cheese and casseroles.

Bee Spicy

you'll love the taste when 100% pure honey meets jalapeno peppers head on.

Besides injecting flavor, jalapeño honey can add great texture to your cooking as well, it tends to make everything stick together better, from marinades to salad dressings,
